We wish Sean McMahon all the very best as he begins his retirement from Mullagh National School. We wish him many years of health and happiness. We thank him most sincerely for his years of dedication to teaching our young people in Annagh and Mullagh Schools. He has made an enormous contribution to our parish and students in so many ways and left a very fine legacy in education and facilities in the school. He has been principal of Mullagh since September 1990. he served with distinction as president of the Irish National Teachers Organisation. We wish Geraldine McMahon all the very best as she takes up the role of Principal in Mullagh National School.

IN NOVEMBER WE REMEMBER

If you would like the names of your loved ones included in Masses for the Holy Souls in November you can use Holy Souls envelopes and lists in each of the Churches. These can be returned anytime during November. These lists can be found in your yearly supply of envelopes or in the loose envelopes available in each of the churches. They will be remembered in masses in November

In Mullagh Church our REMEMBRANCE TREE is in place and you can place a tag with the name of a loved one on the tree. We will remember them all throughout the month.

Parish Remembrance Mass.

Our annual remembrance Mass will take place next Friday evening.

During this Mass we will be especially remembering all who died during the year. Mullagh Church Friday November 11th at 8pm.

All are welcome.

'We remember them Lord from the rising of the sun to it's setting'.
