Annual Killaloe Diocesan In-Service

The Priests of the diocese will be on annual diocesan in-service in Loughrea from Sunday evening November 6th to Wednesday lunch time November 9th. This is a very important time for priests to be together and engage in on-going personal and skill development. It is hoped that all priests in active ministry would be completely free from pastoral engagements during this time. A panel of retired priests have kindly agreed to provide emergency cover during these days, should the need arise. In the event of a sick call or a funeral please contact Fr. Oliver Ryan 087 4535737.

Donations to Parish Funds, Priest & all other collections can also be made online on www.kibparish.ie Donate online

Date for your diary:

A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

God of peace and justice,
We pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
That your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
For wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.

Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear. That you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

Reflection

Coming to the end of life is like a travelling through a narrow tunnel and we pass through it at its narrowest, we than emerge into the widest space we have ever known, wider, brighter, thank any of our thoughts, dreams, hopes.

For a true discription of God is the Lover of life, bringing life to the full, seeing life when all seems lost, in despair, hopelessness, confusion at any age, or when pain and ill-health drain the body of life.

God looks on our dying moments and sees not a person nearly dead, but a man or woman on the doorstep of full life.

God looks on our times of illness and sees us struggling with the limits of earthly life but growing in the life of the soul. And this is how people saw Jesus: a man full of the life of love and of compassion, of conviction and energy.

One who lived in the fullness of God's promise that life is linked in the golden string.

All Saints

I know a lot of Saints, I do!
So let me mention just a few:

I know someone who runs a team
And teaches kids to play and dream,
Who stands in cold and wind and rain
On days they play and nights they train;
Someone who's there when we are sad,
The best the gentlest friend we've had,
Someone who says, 'Just do your best',
When I am scared to take a test;
A friend who takes the time to show
How things were done so long ago;
A teacher who just always knows
Where that comma always goes;
And others who are kind and good,
Who try to act as Jesus would,
Who show God's love in all they do.
I know a lot of saints, don't you?
