WELL DONE TO KIB U10'S TEAM & MANAGEMENT!

KIB U10s had a fantastic win in the Annual Gary Kenny All Ireland
U10 Football Tournament which was held in Cellbridge last Saturday.

This is an All Ireland completion with 32 teams from clubs all over Ireland with a scoring system of 3 points for over the bar and 1 point for a goal.

In the first match against St. Mary's Leixlip (Kildare) KIB had a very convincing 27 points to 10 victory. St Lomans (Westmeath) were next up with the final score 12 points to 8 in favour of KIB.

The last group game against Naomh Colmcille (Meath) was a very close affair with KIB coming out on top on a scoreline of 6 points to 5, to finish top of the group.

Next up in the Quarter Final KIB beat Oranmore (Galway) 2nd team by 6 points and in a tense semi final KIB overcame a strong challenge from Oranmore's 1st team by 4 points.

The final was against Carrickcruppen from Armagh and a very strong performance saw KIB run out 18 points to 10 winners to claim the All Ireland title for the first time.

This was a fantastic achievement for a great bunch of boys and every one of the 16 boys played their hearts out from start to finish.

The panel was as follows: Jayden Murray, Igor Galaska, Aidan Cleary, Cian Foudy, Shane Cahill, Sean O'Neill, Onri Daly, Tiernan
Cummins, Jack Lahiffe, Cian Morrissey, Ryan Miller, Niall Burke, Ryan Geraghty, Sean O'Brien, Fionn Healy, Sean Hickey. (Absent
on the day Ruairi Lafferty & Darren McMahon)
