The Devil's in the Dance Hall – Saturday 22nd November in Mullagh Community Hall

Co. Clare was a hotspot for prosecutions under the 1935 Dance Halls Act.

A widow in Cooraclare was summoned after a sergeant passing her home at 1:30 in the morning noticed many bicycles outside and heard music. Around thirty people were inside in the kitchen; some had travelled considerable distances, as far as Kilmihiil, about twelve miles away. They were flat out dancing a set with reels bursting from a flute player in the corner.

The widow had hosted dances at her house both before and after the Act came in. She did not take money on the door, she said she had no need, but ran the dances for neighbours who helped with her farm. The judge remarked with some astonishment: ... this lady, whose dancing days in the natural order of things should be over, had organised a dance and invited people there. She was not very flush in the world's goods; still she could bring people there and have a dance in her house. He could not see what amusement she got from watching people dance up to 2am when she should be in her bed.

So it's only right that we bring The Devil's in the Dance Hall to west Clare!

Come join us in Mullagh Hall, 22nd November, where we'll step back to the 1930s and dance the night away to the roaring sounds of the Gralton Big Band. Expect set dancing, sean nós, shim shamming and scandal!

MATT TALBOT NOVENA 2025

St. Senan's Church, Kilrush

Monday 10th November at 7.30pm

Fr. Tom Ryan – Ennis & Abbey Pastoral Area

Finding Hope in God's Forgiveness

Rita O'Dwyer – Minister of Pastoral Care in KIB & Miltown Malbay Parishes

Finding Hope in the midst of our Human Story

Finding Hope in Praying for our faithful Departed

In this Jubilee Year of Hope we pray in a special way to Matt Talbot as it marks the Centenary of his death.

“Those who hope in the Lord will be strengthened and will be able to run & walk without growing weary”

REFLECTION

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.
