A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

God of peace and justice,

We pray for the people of Ukraine today.

We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.

We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
That your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.

We pray for those with power over war or peace,
For wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.

Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear. That you would hold and protect them.

We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

Reflection

I used to think gratitude a heavy burden for one to carry.
Now I know that it is something that makes the heart lighter.

The ungrateful person seems to me to be one who walks with feet and heart of lead.

But when one has learnt, however inadequately what a lovely thing gratitude is,

One's feet go lightly over sand and sea,
And one finds a strange joy revealed to one,
The joy of counting up,

Not that one possesses, but what one owes.
I hoard my debts now in the treasury of my heart,
And, piece of gold by piece of gold,
I range them in order at dawn and at evening.

We pray for Prisoners this week 9th to 15th October

For a Prisoner by John O'Donohue

Caged in a cold, functional cell,
Far from the comfort of home
With none of your own things,
In a place that is gray and grim,
Where sounds are seldom gentle,
Amidst the shuffle of dumber feet,
The crossword of lost voices,
The one constant note
Is the dead, trap-shut sound
Of unrelenting doors that
Make walls absolute.

Though you have lost the outside world,
May you discover the untold journey
That await you in the inner world.

May you come to recognize
That though your body is imprisoned,
No one can imprison your mind.
