Over the next four years a new religious education programme is being rolled out for use in primary schools. It is called 'Grow in Love' and it replaces the 'Alive O' programme. It has started to be used in Junior and Senior infants in the primary schools. This is a welcome development with plenty of new resources and materials. It seeks to involve parents more and more in the programme. Fr. Anthony with Joe Searson (Mullagh) and Sr. Essie Hayes (Nenagh) are members of the Killaloe Diocese Catechetical Team and this group have been given the job of providing in service to all primary teachers using the new programme. This will take about 5 weeks and will now mean that Fr. Anthony will not be available for masses on these days. Next Tuesday and Thursday there will be communion service with readings and prayers at Mullagh Church at 10am. Mass on Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays as usual. We will advise each week of arrangements for prayer services / masses on these days.
